

The Do Not Call listing in NJ is one that should be enacted in other states. My telephone is not a public service, b/c I pay every month for the service to be available in my home. By enabling agencies with whom I have no relationship to contact me is a violation of my privacy.